The result was Rudolph, a young reindeer born with a bright, glowing red nose that made him different from the other reindeer.

Robert L. May's Inspiration

May's inspiration for Rudolph came from a variety of sources. He wanted to create a character who, despite being different, could find value and acceptance. This theme of overcoming adversity is a universal message that resonates with many. In 1964, the story was adapted into a stop-motion animated television special produced by Rankin/Bass
